

Intersecting Emotional and Social Intelligence with Leadership Effectiveness

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The purpose of this course is to provide private and public sector professionals with a greater understanding of how Emotional and Social Intelligence (ESI) sets the stage for advancing personal growth and leadership effectiveness. Controlling one's emotions, and the impact of their emotions on others, is crucial if leaders strive to create a healthy, successful, and respected organization. This course will explore the undeniable connection between ESI and Leadership Effectiveness. Some of the philosophies and concepts outlined in this course will delve into Introspection, Effective Leadership Traits, Emotional and Social Intelligence, Organizational Awareness, Teamwork, and how each serve as an important basis to develop trust and respect amongst peers, subordinates, superiors, and others.

Date:
TBD

Location:
TBD

1 - day course (8 hours)
STC# 02188742

For course registration, or registration questions please visit us at:

www.RichealGroup.com

You may also contact us at 916.990.5848 or RichealGroup@gmail.com

Prior participant feedback:

"Chief Richeal was real, honest, and everything she said made sense."

"I felt challenged to think about what I needed to do to make myself a more impactful leader."

"The content was very validating and hit home."

"Great course, relating topics, and dynamic speaker. The topics definitely relate to some of the issues I'm dealing with in my current position."

Cancellation Policy: Agencies are required to notify the Richeal Group of cancelled enrollments a minimum of 15 calendar days before the first day of instruction. If a trainee does not attend the course without giving the required 15 day notice the provider may charge the agency the cost of the tuition for the absent trainee(s).